

Spencer Preston is an incoming junior with ton of potential to be a starter on Varsity but most importantly one of the leaders of both the golf and baseball programs at Mountain View High School. His dedication in both sports has led to positive relationships with other peers and different coaches. As he has continued working hard and dedicating his time to not only be a good golfer/baseball player; he has also dedicated to his academic studies, which are shown through his grade point average.

Spencer has unlimited work ethic, he has a positive personality, his peers respect him, he has leadership mentality and he plays both golf and baseball with the intent to successful. You are not only adding a great student-athlete to your program but also a great human-being.
